
CONTENTS

THE SHOP THE BASIS OF OUR RECRUITING DRIVE	1
FROM THE PRACTICAL WORK—FOR THE PRACTICAL WORK UNEMPLOYMENT WORK
Uniting the Struggle of Employed and Unemployed— Briggs Hunger March	3
Involving the A. F. of L. Workers in the Hunger March	7
Local Struggles and the Building of Unemployed Councils in Preparation for the Hunger March	9
STRIKE AND TRADE UNION WORK
Notes on Strike Strategy in Lawrence	11
PARTY RECRUITMENT DRIVE
A Brief Glimpse at the Recruiting Drive in Chicago District	13
On Building Shop Nuclei	16
Concentration Work	18
AGIT-PROP WORK
Shop Papers 1931	19
A New Weapon of Agitation and Propaganda	21
IMPROVING INTERNAL LIFE OF THE PARTY
Drawing in the Members More Closely in Political Actions	24
WORK AMONG WOMEN
Organize the Work Among Women	26
MATERIAL FOR A COURSE ON ORGANIZA- TIONAL QUESTIONS	28

CONTENTS

ROOTING THE PARTY IN THE SHOPS THE BASIS OF STRUGGLE AGAINST WAR	1
SHOP WORK AND THE MEMBERSHIP RECRUITING DRIVE	3

FROM THE PRACTICAL WORK— FOR THE PRACTICAL WORK ROOTING THE PARTY IN THE SHOPS

Systematic Work in the Factory Brings Results	5
The Meaning of Concentration	6
Self-Criticism Must Be Followed by Correction	7
Direct Leadership Helps in the Growth of S. Nucleus	8

PARTY RECRUITMENT WORK

Recruiting Drive Must Overcome Weaknesses Revealed by Party Registration	9
Open Wide the Door of the Party to the Workers	11
A Correct Challenge in the Recruiting Drive	13
Experience in Party Building Among Kentucky, Tennessee Miners	13
Recruiting on the Basis of Participation in Struggles	15

FRACTION WORK

A Turn in Words and Stagnation in Deeds	16
On the Functioning of Trade Union Fractions	18

MASS WORK

Building a Mass Movement in a Small Industrial Town	20
How We Organized a Neighborhood Mass Meeting	21
The Political Significance of "Rent Strikes"	22

AGIT-PROP WORK

Some Problems of Mass Agitation and Propaganda in the Shops	25
Double the Circulation of The Communist	28

WORK AMONG WOMEN

Tasks of International Women's Day Campaign—Anna Damon	29
--	----

MATERIAL FOR A COURSE ON ORGANIZATIONAL QUESTIONS (continued from last issue)	31
---	----

CONTENTS

MAY DAY, 1932	1
THE STUDY OF THE RESOLUTION	3
WHAT KIND OF ACTIVISTS DOES THE PARTY NEED AT PRESENT	4
 ROOTING THE PARTY IN THE SHOPS
On Carrying On Communist Work in Shops	5
From a Grievance to a Grievance Committee	8
Proper Attention Brings Results	11
A Shop Nucleus Facing An "Acid Test"	13
Millions of Profits for the Bosses — Starvation Wages for the Workers	14
 MASS WORK
Experience in the Formation of a Shop Nucleus	16
Experiences in Recruiting and Building New Young Communist League Units Immediately After the Ford Massacre	18
Organizational Lessons Learned From Bloody Monday	20
A New Communist Unit in Action	21
Review of Three Months Plan of Work of Hancock Section— District No. 9	23
 ELECTION CAMPAIGN
The Party and the Elections—Some Mistakes and Lessons	25
 LITERATURE DISTRIBUTION
Directives of Literature Distribution in Mobilizing for May Day	28
On the Sale of Literature at Open Meetings	29
 AGIT-PROP WORK
For Greater Use of Open Forums	30
MATERIAL FOR A COURSE ON ORGANIZATIONAL QUESTIONS	31

CONTENTS

PLENUM MATERIAL

	Page
Keynote of the Fourteenth Plenum.—W. W. Weinstein.....	1
Approaching the Factories as Insiders and Not as Outsiders — Earl Browder	4
The Election Campaign and the Struggle Against Sectarian- ism.—C. A. Hathaway	6
Learn to Answer Questions Asked by Shop Workers.—Mack The Inner Life of the Party and Sectarianism.—W. Z. Foster	8
The Struggle for the Negro Masses and the Fight Against the Social Demagogues.—B. K. Gehert	11
Preparation for Strikes—Methods of Concentration.—Jack Stachel	12
Our Work in the Reformist Unions.—Weinstock	14
Struggle Against Provocateurs and Spies—From the Report of the C. C. C. to the C. C. Plenum	17
Shop Work and Fight Against Suppression—From the Report of the Fraternal Delegate from the C. P. of Canada to the C. C. Plenum	19
To the Study of the Party and C. I. Resolutions	20
The Plenum Discussion in the Daily Worker	21
The Central Committee Plenum Turns Its Attention to Mass Distribution of Literature.—Gertrude Haessler	22
The Training of New Cadres and the Development of Collective Work.—C. Smith	23
Down with Passivity—Into Action in the Anti-War Struggle. F. Brown	26
Systematic Every-Day Work Brings Results in Shop Work. —B. B.	27
Contents of the Plenum Pamphlet "Toward Revolutionary Mass Work."	30
Contents of the June Issue of The Communist	32
	33

MASS WORK

Getting a Contact.—J. P.	34
Some Points on "Concentration."—A. Lynn	35
The Building of the Union in Struggle—Our Major Task	36
After the Start It's Easy—Shop in Indiana	37
Notes on the Work of Block Committees—From a Report of H. Benjamin	38
How Our Block Committees Work.—Joe Brandt	39

SHOP PAPER EDITOR

The Shop Papers Closer to Organizational Life	42
Shop Paper Reviews	43
Shop Paper Statistics	45
Some Political Organizational Directives on the Issuance of Shop Papers	46

LITERATURE

Selling to Shop Workers.—C. F.	47
Then and Now	48

AGIT-PROP WORK

A Letter from a New Member.—R. E. J., Ohio	50
Political Initiation of New Members.—S. D.	52
The Training of New Cadres and Our School System for the Summer	54
New Members' Classes and the New Pamphlet "The Communist Party in Action."	55
Contents of the New Members' Pamphlet "The Communist Party in Action"	56
On Coordinating Organization and Agit-Prop Work	57
The Unit to Become a Political Center for the Mobilization of the Membership for Mass Work	59
The Study of Marxism Simplified	61
MATERIAL FOR A COURSE ON ORGANIZATIONAL QUESTIONS (Concluded)	63

CONTENTS

MAKE THE AUGUST FIRST DEMONSTRATIONS A BATTLEFIELD IN THE STRUGGLE AGAINST IMPERIALIST WAR	1
OUR TASKS IN STRUGGLE AGAINST IMPERIALIST WAR	3
STRUGGLE ON TWO FRONTS TO DEFEAT THE DIES BILL	5
OUT TO THE SMALLER INDUSTRIAL TOWNS ..	6
 ROOTING THE PARTY IN THE SHOPS
How Are We Going to Concentrate on Shops?	9
How to Organize a Shop Group	10
Our Party's Task in the Youngstown Steel District	12
From Reports	15
 SHOP PAPER EDITOR
Shop Paper Reviews	19
What Shop Papers Must Emphasize in Coming Issues— And How They Must Do It	20
 AGIT-PROP WORK
Mass Agitation in Strike Struggles	23
What Is Agitation—What Is Propaganda?	24
Agit Prop Briefs	26
An Example to Be Followed	28
 LITERATURE
Selling Inside the Shops	29
August First and May First	29
Unit Literature Directors—Wake Up!	31
Don't Let the Question of Lack of Credits Stop You	32
Workers' Libraries Give Workers an Opportunity to Read	32

CONTENTS

The Election Campaign and the Struggle for the Masses	1
Lessons of the Metal Strike in Terre Haute	3
The Fight for Unemployment Insurance and Local Demands	5
Experiences of Neighborhood Concentration	6
Winning the Negro Masses for Our Election Campaign	8
Good Methods of Shop Work Bring Results	10
Suggestions for Concentration in Ford Plants	11
The Work of Trade Union Fractions	13
Some Experiences in Shop Concentration	14
Less Inner Meetings and More Concrete Work	15

SHOP PAPER EDITOR

Shop Paper Reviews	18
Some Shortcomings of the Shop Papers	20
Conditions for Successful Shop Work	21

AGIT-PROP WORK

For Broadening Our Agitation in the Election Campaign	22
An Examination of Some August First Leaflets	24
For Political Clarity in Writing of Leaflets	25
Agit-Prop Briefs	26
Shop Gate Meetings as a Help to the Comrades Inside	27

LITERATURE

Section Stimulates the Sale of Literature	29
Making a Good Start Out of Nothing	29
Planning for the Foster and Ford Meeting	30
Workers More Anxious to Buy Literature Now Than Ever	31

CONTENTS

Why a Recruiting Drive Now?	1
A Communist Nucleus in a Small Shop	5
Mass Organizations in the Factories, and Factory Work	6
Experiences of Mass Work	8
FROM the Discussion at the Last Meeting of the Central Committee Experiences in Building the National Miners Union	11
The Development of Unemployed Struggles in a Concentration Section (Fayette County, District 5)	13
The Farmers on the Move and Our Tasks	15
Detroit Tackles the Farmers	18

SHOP PAPER EDITOR

Shop Paper Reviews	19
The Warren Steel Strike and the Shop Papers	20
Will the Comrades Explain?	22
Shop Paper Statistics	23
Aid for Shop Papers	23

AGIT-PROP WORK

The Fight for Unemployment Insurance and Our Agitation	24
A Revised Edition of the New Members' Pamphlet	25
A Workers School in Every District	26
Preparations for the 15th Anniversary of the October Revolution	28
A Good Example of an Unemployment Leaflet	29

LITERATURE

Self-Criticism from Detroit	30
Overcoming Financial Chaos	31
Proper Handling of Literature in the Units	31
Salt Lake City Activizes the Units in Literature Activity in the Election Campaign	32
Language Organizations Can Sell English Literature	32

CONTENTS

BUILD THE PARTY AND THE UNIONS IN THE FACTORIES	1
The Work of the Warren Trumbull Steel Nucleus Before, During and after the Strike	4
How We prepared for the Trenton Doll Strike	7
Concentration Brings Results	10
Steel Plant Nucleus Check-up on Plan of Work	13
A Department Group Discusses Its Problems	14
To the Study and Application of the United Front Policy	16
Unity of Negro and White Toilers	19
In Struggles Workers Recognize Their Leaders	21
How We Stopped a Sheriff Sale at Monhaga, Minn	22
Successful United Action Created Among the Farmers	24
What Is the United Front?	26
Expand the Cadres of the Party!	27
For a Proper Utilization of Party Forces	30
Self-Criticism Without Correction	33
New Membership Books	35
How Individual and Group Agitation Is to Be Conducted	37
Hints For Organizing Forums	39
Shop Paper Reviews	42
New York Quadruples Literature Distribution	45
